

GENESIS ENERGY HEALTH & WELFARE BENEFITS PLAN

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Your Information | Your Rights | Our Responsibilities

This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. This Notice applies to the medical, prescription drug, dental, vision, health flexible spending account, and other "group health plan" benefit programs offered through the Genesis Energy Health & Welfare Benefits Plan. Please review this Notice carefully.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your health and claims records	 You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We will provide a copy or summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, costbased fee.
Ask us to correct health and claims records	 You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request confidential communications	 You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say "yes" if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.
Ask us to limit what we use or share	 You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.
Get a list of those with whom we've shared information	 You can ask for a list ("accounting") of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice	 You can ask for an additional copy of this notice at any time. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. You can also view a copy of this notice on company intranet and the Human Resources website (hr.genesisenergy).
Choose someone to act for you	 If you have given someone a medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated	 You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information at the end of this notice. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/ We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you what us to do, and we'll follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Help manage the health care treatment you receive	 We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you. 	Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services.
Run our organization	 We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary. We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. 	Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.
Pay for your health services	 We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services. 	Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.
Administer your plan	 We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration. 	Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.
